

From Crime Scene To The Court Room:

A holistic view of the investigative process through to victim support.

One person is murdered in NSW every 3–4 days. What happens behind the scenes from a Police and victim support perspective when this occurs. We will give an overview of the Police investigation processes from the crime scene to the Court and who supports a family who are thrust into this terrible journey and how this is done.

John Laycock APM retired Assistant Commissioner, NSW Police Force, Barrister at Law, extensive experience in criminal investigations, specifically homicide and including cold cases. John acts as policing consultant to HVSG (Aust) Inc on a voluntary basis and has done so for the past 20 years.

Martha Jabour, executive Director of HVSG (Aust) Inc for the past 21 years will outline the role of the Group in providing support to families of homicide victims and their involvement in reform and community education. Working closely with Police and other Government agencies Martha sits on the State Parole Authority of NSW and many other statutory boards.
