

UNIVERSITY of OTAGO
Te Whare Wānanga o Otāgo
NEW ZEALAND

Australian and New Zealand
FORENSIC SCIENCE SOCIETY

otago
summer school
Te Kura Raumati

SPEAKING FOR THE DEAD

The Role of the Coroner in New Zealand

Wednesday 17 February 2021
5.30 pm - 7 pm

DOORS OPEN 5.30 PM
TALK STARTS 5.45 PM

The final public talk in a series of three forensic highlights summer seminars from New Zealand forensic experts. Hosted by the Forensic Biology Summer School, University of Otago in conjunction with the Australian New Zealand Forensic Science Society. Streamed online for ANZFSS members.

CORONER A J TUTTON

Anna Tutton is the Deputy Chief Coroner of New Zealand, appointed the role of coroner since in 2015. Previously, she was employed in a range of legal roles including manager of a legal team for New Zealand Police, Senior Legal Counsel at the Commerce Commission, Crown Prosecutor, Deputy National Director of the Institute of Professional Legal Studies and High Court Judges' Clerk.