

Advances in Forensic Science Research

Join us to hear about the latest exciting advances in forensic science research and implications for casework and the community from a number of local researchers across Forensic Biology, Forensic Pathology, and Forensic Chemistry.

Venue: Braggs Lecture Theatre— University of Adelaide, North Terrace

Date/Time: Wednesday 18th November 2020 at 6.30pm for a 7pm start

Cost: Free for members, $10 for non-members

Bookings Via: <https://members.anzfss.org/booking.php?id=155ht>

Australian and New Zealand
FORENSIC SCIENCE SOCIETY

Speakers

NAME	TITLE
Meghan McKinnon	A comparison of crystal structure in fresh, burned and archaic bone - Implications for DNA extraction protocols
April Rivers-Kennedy	Investigating the underlying risk factors and source of fatal pulmonary thromboembolism in Coronial post-mortem examination
Claire Mercer	Study of DNA accumulation and transfer within an operational forensic exhibit storeroom
Dan Bonsu	Touch DNA recovery from metal surfaces
Amy Griffin	Bioprofiling of Illicit drugs: association with locations and people
Natalie Daou	The prevalence of surface contamination of methamphetamine within public toilets in metropolitan Adelaide using novel SPME and GC analysis techniques

Event Location

Australian and New Zealand
FORENSIC SCIENCE SOCIETY

