Conditions of receiving the Allan Hodda Award
I,		acknowledge and agree to the following, should I be named the successful Award recipient.
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Funding available will be up to the value of AUD$5,000. Further funding of up to AUD$2,000 will be provided for registration and reasonable expenses to present at the next ANZFSS symposium held after completion of travel, pending acceptance of my oral presentation abstract by the symposium organising committee. • To allow the use of my imagery by the Society in its publications and/or marketing activities associated with the Award. • To take responsibility for managing all of my own booking and travel requirements, including medical and travel insurance. • To complete my proposed travel within one year of the announcement of the successful Award recipient. • To acknowledge the Award and the support provided by the Society in any presentation I give whilst travelling, and similarly, upon my return with any presentation or publication based on outcomes and results gained from the Award travel. • To commit to attend and give an oral presentation at the next ANZFSS symposium held after completion of my travel (acceptance of submission is at the discretion of the symposium organising committee). This commitment should be acknowledged and supported by my workplace. My oral presentation abstract should outline the aims and outcomes of my travel, and be submitted per the requirements of the relevant symposium. Funding for attendance to the next ANZFSS symposium is conditional on the acceptance of an oral presentation about the trip. • To provide the following documents to ANZFSS Council, via the executive@anzfss.org email address.
