 - (a) has been a member for at least 12 months; and
 - (b) is entitled to vote at a general meeting; and
 - (c) has been a member of the Executive at the branch level; and
 - (d) is in employment—this may include self-employment—in a field related to forensic science.

Note

A Council member may not hold the office of Secretary if they do not reside in Australia.

48 Positions to be declared vacant

- (1) The President Elect shall be elected through an online voting system, with the final result announced at the next Annual General Meeting of the Society (held in an odd year). The President Elect will assume the office of President at the end of the subsequent Annual General Meeting (held in an even year) and shall hold that office for approximately two years.
- (2) The Vice-President (Australia), Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected through an online voting system, with the final results announced at the next Annual General Meeting of the Society (held in an even year) and shall hold office for approximately two years.

49 Nominations

- (1) At least 49 days prior to the election of each position, the Secretary must call for nominations via email to fill that position, allowing for a 21 day nomination period and a voting period of at least 28 days. The nomination period shall be no longer than 21 days.
- (2) An eligible member of the Society may:
 - (a) nominate himself or herself; or
 - (b) with the member's consent, be nominated by another member.
- (3) In the event that no nominations are received the position may be filled in accordance with Rule 54.

50 Election of Executive

- (1) Separate elections (as defined in Rule 48) must be held for each of the following positions:
 - (a) President Elect;
 - (b) Vice-President (Australia);
 - (c) Secretary; and
 - (d) Treasurer.

- (2) If only one member is nominated for the position, the online election process must declare that the member will be elected to the position when the election results are announced.
- (3) If more than one member is nominated, an online ballot must be held in accordance with Rule 51.

51 Online Ballot

- (1) If an online ballot is required for the election for a position, the Vice-President (New Zealand) must commence an online election process.
- (2) The online election process shall allow voting for a period of at least 28 days, and preferably fewer than 31 days.
- (3) The returning officer will normally be the Vice-President (New Zealand) unless that member is nominated for a position.
- (4) The returning officer must not be a member nominated for the position.
- (5) The ballot should include: a brief biography of each candidate, a photograph of each candidate, and a statement in support of his or her election.
- (6) The election must be by secret ballot. In the online context, this means that electors should not be privy to any information that indicates the votes of others. Equally, the candidates will have no recourse to the voting records of the members.
- (7) If the ballot is for a single position, the voter must be able to indicate on the ballot form the name of the candidate for whom they wish to vote.
- (8) If the ballot is for more than one position:
 - (a) the voter must be able to indicate on the ballot form the name of each candidate for whom they wish to vote; and
 - (b) the voter must not be able to indicate the names of more candidates than the number to be elected.
- (9) Each ballot form on which the name of a candidate has been selected counts as one vote for that candidate.
- (10) The returning officer must declare elected the candidate or, in the case of an election for more than one position, the candidates who received the most votes.
- (11) If the returning officer is unable to declare the result of an election under Subrule 51(10) because two or more candidates received the same number of votes, the returning officer must:
 - (a) conduct a further election for the position in accordance with Subrules 51(6) to (10) to decide which of those candidates is to be elected; or
 - (b) with the agreement of those candidates, decide by lot which of them is to be elected.

Examples

The choice of candidate may be decided by the toss of a coin, drawing straws or drawing a name out of a hat.

52 Term of office

- (1) Subject to Subrule 53(2), an Executive member holds office until the positions of the Executive, except the President Elect, are declared vacant after approximately two years. The President Elect position is declared vacant approximately one year after President Elect becomes the President. The inexactness of the term arises because Annual General Meetings are held approximately, but not exactly two years apart.
- (2) An Executive member may be re-elected.
- (3) A general meeting of the Society may:
 - (a) by special resolution remove a Council member from office; and
 - (b) elect an eligible member of the Society to fill the vacant position in accordance with this Division.
- (4) A member who is the subject of a proposed special resolution under Subrule 52(3)(a) may make representations in writing to the Secretary or President of the Society (not exceeding a reasonable length) and may request that the representations be provided to the members of the Society.
- (5) The Secretary or the President may give a copy of the representations to each member of the Society or, if they are not so given, the member may require that they be read out at the meeting at which the special resolution is to be proposed.

53 Vacation of office

- (1) A Council member may resign from the Council by written notice addressed to the Council.

 - (c) otherwise ceases to be a Council member by operation of section 78 of the Act.

54 Filling casual vacancies

- (1) Unless there are two or more vacancies in one calendar month, the Council may appoint an eligible member of the Society to fill a position on the Council that:
 - (a) has become vacant under Rule 53; or
 - (b) was not filled by election at the last Annual General Meeting.
- (2) If the position of Secretary becomes vacant, the Council must appoint a member to the position within 14 days after the vacancy arises.

- (3) Rule 53 applies to any Council member appointed by the Council under Subrules 54(1) or (2).
- (4) The Council may continue to act despite any vacancy in its membership.
- (5) If there are three or more vacancies, nominations shall be called for and a ballot held if required. The ballot may be by post to all members, by use of technology, or at a General Meeting.

- (3) This Rule does not apply to a material personal interest that:
 - (a) exists only because the member belongs to a class of persons for whose benefit the Association is established; or
 - (b) the member has in common with all, or a substantial proportion of, the members of the Association.
